(b) if not, the reasons therefor; and
(c) whether this project will be beneficial for environment and wildlife in remote, rural and hilly areas of the country?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE (INDEPENDENT CHARGE) FOR ENVIRONMENT, FOREST AND CLIMATE CHANGE

(SHRI ANIL MADHAV DAVE)

(a) and (b) The National Mission for a Green India (GIM) has been launched by the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change in the year 2014-15. The Government makes constant endeavour to improve implementation of the Mission through revision and updation of the implementation guidelines and instructions.

(c) The implementation of the GIM has the potential of benefitting environment and wildlife in remote, rural and hilly areas of the country.
